

Dyslexia Canada

Dyslexia Canada is a national charity dedicated to a change for children with dyslexia in Canada

Dyslexia Canada was formed in 2016 as a way to ensure that there was a national voice and forum to advocate for all Canadian children with dyslexia. By partnering with professional organizations, experts and advocates, Dyslexia Canada strives to drive systemic change by engaging and educating the public and establishing legislation specific to recognizing and remediating dyslexia.

Visit the Dyslexia Canada website <https://www.dyslexiacanada.org/> to learn more about the resources available to teachers, parents and students.

Podcasts - Websites - Webinars - Blog - Books - Tools - Tutors - Events

Community Connections

Dyslexia Canada's free Community Connections program offers peer-to-peer support for parents and caregivers of children with dyslexia.

Sharing Stories

Sharing Stories is Dyslexia Canada's first-ever podcast. In each episode, guests of the show share their latest book recommendations and tell us about their reading journey.

Mark it Read

Each October, monuments and buildings light up red, schools and workplaces wear red, and cities and towns sign proclamations officially declaring October as Dyslexia Awareness Month

itshardtoread.org

Introducing the World's Hardest-to-Read Website, an exciting immersive digital experience that gives you an insight into what it's like to live with dyslexia.